Everest Sherpa Trail Overview

Everest Sherpa Trail is a perfect blend of rich Sherpa culture along with a mesmerizing view of the Himalayas. The route offers a fantastic feel of the historical Shera village and their truly unique way of hospitality makes you feel at home.

Starting at Lukla in the high Khumbu, your legendary Everest journey brings you first to Phakding, Monjo, and then to Namche, the village at the end of the world. The next day, you'll continue northwest to Thame, a lovely village with a spectacular 16th-century Nyingmapa gumpa. Ascend to Khumjung village, then to the untouched village of Phortse.

This trip takes a circular route through the heart of the Khumbu Sherpa community. You pass through Namche Bazaar, Kunde, where you may see the Yeti Scalp, Phortse, which is home to many Everest summiteers, and the iconic Tengboche Monastery.

Throughout the journey, there are breathtaking views of the world's highest peak, Mount Everest, and the surrounding Himalayan giants. While less hard than the trek to Base Camp, the trip is equally unforgettable.

Trip Difficulty: Is this trip suitable for me?

Everest Sherpa Trail is designed for those looking for adventure, a taste of the high Himalayan experience, and to be among the world-renowned Sherpa community.

This is a moderate trip: most trek days last 4 - 5 hours, with only a few being somewhat longer. The altitude rise is normally between 300 and 500m each day, and the trails and routes are generally wide and well-marked.

We recommend that you possess a reasonable level of fitness, although you don't have to be an experienced trekker to relish this journey. However, having some hiking experience can greatly enhance your experience along these trails. Our trek leader and crew will ensure a comfortable pace with support at every step. If you're accustomed to day walks in gentle hills in your home country or engage in activities like swimming, cycling, or attending classes a couple of times a week, you should find this trek well within your capabilities.

Knowing that a hot shower and other comforts await you at the end of each day's trek adds even more of a joy!
