Trip Overview

Nepal Luxury Tour offers you a relaxing and luxurious holiday in the beautiful country Nepal. The tour explores three main cities, Kathmandu, Pokhara and Chitwan. Kathmandu valley tour offers you to visit three major durbar squares of Kathmandu valley. Kathmandu durbar square respectively.

(Durbar) in Nepali means “Palace” Around the central Durbar Square in every place mentioned above; there are the old Royal Palaces. (Hanuman Dhoka) Kathmandu Durbar Square, where numbers of interesting pagodas and Indian style temples (Sikhara), the House of Kumari (the living Goddess) and the Kasthamandap (or wooden house which is the origin of the word Kathmandu) and many more things to see and enjoy in Kathmandu valley.

We will also visit Swayambhunath monkey temple: self originated = Swayambhu, according to Buddhist literature and related source, it is said that Sowayambhu is self originated and contemporary king and priest preserve it by building temple on it.

Chitwan tour includes jungle safari activities with cultural program in Chitwan National Park which is situated in the southern lowlands (the Terai) in Nepal. Chitwan (meaning ‘heart of the jungle’) is one of the finest wildlife reserves in Asia.

It is home to more than 700 species of birds and over 70 species of wild creatures including the endangered Royal Bengal Tiger, elephants, one-horned white rhinos, sloths and goral crocodiles. The local people belong to the Tharu tribe and there are opportunities to visit Tharu villages and to enjoy programmes of Tharu culture.

Pokhara is another attraction of Kathmandu, Pokhara and Chitwan tour and is the most popular tourist destination in Nepal after Kathmandu. Enclosed by the Annapurna Range of the Himalaya (in the shape of a horse shoe). At 800m above sea level, the air is clean and fresh and the subtropical climate is ideal.

Most travellers stay in the favoured Lakeside District which follows the shoreline of Fewa Lake (Nepal's second largest lake). Lakeside and in easy reach of Fewa Tal, hotels, the shops and restaurants.

The main thoroughfare runs parallel with the shore and has the feel of a relaxed border town, City of devotees and is a center of potter and intriguing mask. The nearest snow-capped mountain – Fishtail is less than 30 kilometers from Pokhara. Pokhara's numerous lakes offer fishing, boating and swimming.
